Mrs. Babcock Honored On Retirement

The cafeteria staff at Appomattox Primary School honored Mrs. A. A. Babcock, third from the left above, on Tuesday evening of last week with a dinner at the Parkway Restaurant. Mrs. Babcock, having worked in the Appomattox County Public School system as assistant teacher and manager of the cafeteria for the past thirty years, will be retiring at the end of this school semester. She was presented a gift from her co-workers.

Mrs. Babcock and her son, Byran, will be leaving June 15th for a vacation in Puerto Rica.

Stars In School Plays

Ann Booth Purcell, a junior at Washington-Lee High School, from all indications has quite a bit of talent when it comes to acting.

Miss Vicki Moore

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keesee Purcell of Arlington and the grandaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Booth of Appomattox, Ann portrayed Eliza Doolittle, one of the leading roles, when her high school produced "My Fair Lady," a two-act play, in March of this year. More recently, when Washington-Lee High School presented "Our Town," a three-act play, Ann had the part of Rebecca Gibbs.

This is Ann's second year of school-oriented drama. She has contributed to every play through costuming, stage work, work, directing and acting. She enjoys drama and plans to continue with it in college.

Receives Degree

Miss Vicki Moore of Gladstone was among those receiving degrees from Southern Seminary Junior College, Buena Vista. A graduate of Lynchburg Christian Academy, she received her degree in Home Economics (Associate in Science degree program).

Miss Moore received the Home Economics Award, presented to the most conscientious home economics major who has performed consistently this year; and the Robey Scholarship, the scholarship awarded to a returning student who, in the estimation of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Robey, measures up the standards of dress and decorum established by the donors.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Moore of Route 2, Gladstone.

Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Susan King Putney to Mr. Eames Asbury Powers, Jr., was an event of May 25, 1974 at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at Bedford Baptist Church, Bedford.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Lacey Edward Putney of "Glen Mary", Goode, Virginia.

Mr. Powers is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Eames Asbury Powers, Sr., of Lynchburg.

The Rev. J. Marshall Walker was the officiating clergyman.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of ivory organza featuring a plunge neckline, long fitted tea cup sleeves with appliqued re-embroidered Alencon lace and seed pearls. The high-rise circular skirt formed a chapel train. She wore a head peice of pearl trimmed Alencon lace camelot cap from which a full length veil of ivory illusion fell. Her corsage was gardenia white roses and stephonatis.

Miss Marcella Kate Schools of Bedford was honor attendent. Other attendants were Mrs. Edward Hunter Bryant, Jr., sister of the groom, of Richmond; Mrs. Randal Lynn Ramsey of Lynchburg, cousin of the bride; Miss Dee Giles of Lynchburg, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Johnnie Glenn Overstreet of Richmond; and Miss Anna Elizabeth Barnes of Natchez, Miss.

Their gowns were floor length of jade linen featuring a batteau neckline edged with white satin piping, Dior bows on the shoulders, and they wore matching jade cloche headpieces. Their flowers were bouquets of yellow roses, gardenias and baby breath.

Eames Asbury Powers, Sr., was his son's best man.

Ushers were Mr. Lacey Edward Putney, Jr. of Goode, brother of the bride; Charles L. Burton of Atlanta, Georgia; Wallace Glass McKenna, Jr. of Lynchburg; Bernard Kyle Mundy, II of Lynchburg; William F. Overacre of Lynchburg; and John Lloyd Swann, Jr. also of Lynchburg.

Senior ushers were Edward Hunter Bryant, Jr. of Richmond, brother-in-law of the groom; and Macon Cobb Putney of Bedford, uncle of the bride.

Mrs. Barbara D. Martin of Lynchburg provided organ music for the ceremony.

The bride attended Sophie Newcomb College in New Orleans, LA. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Robert Carrington Harlow of Lynchburg and the late Mr. Harlow, and Mrs. M. Turner Putney of Lynchburg and William Kemper Putney of Big Island.

The groom is a graduate of Virginia Episcopal School, attended the University of Richomond where he was a member of Theta Chi Social Fraternity and he received a B.A. degree from Lynchburg College. He is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Burton Powers of Greensboro, Alabama.

A reception was held at the home of the bride, "Glan Mary", in Goode.

Following a wedding trip to London and Paris the couple will make their home in Lynchburg.
